Making "Friends"*

I hope the day will be a lighter highway
For friends are found on every road
Can you ever think of any better way
For the lost and weary travelers to go
Making Friends for the world to see
Let the people know you've got what you need.

With a friend at hand you will see
the light—if your friends are there then everything's alright.

It seems to be a crime that we should age
These fragile times should never pass us by
A time you never can or shall erase
As friends together watch their childhood fly
Making friends for the world to see
Let the people know you've got
what you need.

With a friend at hand you will see
the light—if your friends are there then everything's alright.

1975 Dedication

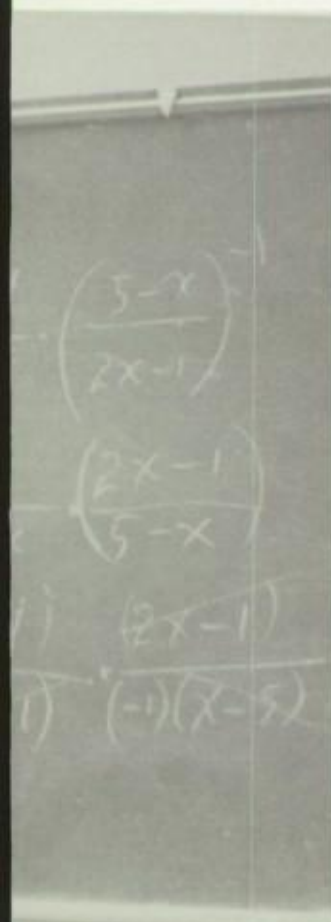

It seems only fitting that a book such as this be dedicated to people who are dedicated to Reicher—that is people who, thru their efforts, talents, endless hours of work and success have made this school year stand out in the minds of the students, faculty, and public as an especially memorable one. And some of the "Big men" on campus fall directly into this description. We cannot think of anyone more appropriately suited and deserving of this acknowledgment than the coaching staff and varsity football team of Reicher High School. Under the outstanding direction of Coaches Flood, Pate, Moore, Evans, and Derlin, the Cougars accomplished something which Reicher has not seen in 11 years—the TCIL State Football Championship. We wish to thank them—one and all for their effort and congratulate them for their success. And therefore, we dedicate the 1975 Chi-Rhoan to the dedicated Reicher Cougars and coaches.

One Way

Religion isn't all Baltimore Catechism. Reicher religion classes deal with psychology, history, and philosophies of life. So, although religion may not be thought of as a major subject at Reicher, it plays an important role.

- A. Donna probes the mysteries of Baptism.
- B. "Me and my shadow . . ."
- C. Freshmen are wide-eyed with wonder.
- D. Missy and Sister tell each other Religion jokes during a free mod.
- E. "Man! I wish I wouldn't keep dropping my cheat sheets!"
- F. Ralph feels right at home with the sophomores.

Speaking of English

From Walt Whitman to Shakespeare, writing themes to discussing plot, crossing t's to dotting i's, we finally come to English. In these classes, students do all this and more hopefully becoming literate and worthwhile people.

- A. Mrs. Hanks gives Woody some help with his speech research.
- B. "Miss Veselka, could you please tell me why you are always whispering during my lectures?"
- C. "Speech is one class where I can talk as much as I want!"
- D. "Yes, I see the little man crawling thru the window, but maybe if we ignore him, he'll go away."
- E. "I don't know these people; I just go to school here."
- F. "See, Mrs. Hanks, it was only a D- . . ."
- G. Valerie seems to enjoy her daily quiz.

Science at It's Best!

Four Science courses are offered at Reicher. They include Physics, Chemistry, Earth Science, and Biology. Dr. Peacock guides Juniors and Seniors thru Earth Science and Physics, while Sister Margaret Ruth teaches Chemistry to the Juniors and Seniors who want a challenging course. Sophomores begin with basic Biology, and find their teacher, Mrs. Collins, very enjoyable.

- A. Mark and Jeff exploit their knowledge about Earth Science.
- B. $\text{HOH}_2 + 2\text{CO}_2 + \text{Mg}_5 = \text{ONE BIG EXPLOSION!}$
- C. Twinkle, twinkle, little star, how we wonder what you are!
- D. "We're centrioles! What are centrioles?"

Dr. Peacock + Sister Margaret + Mr. McCall = Math

"What's a corollary?" "How do you find the square of a square?" "What do you mean, I have to prove it?" "My circle sort of looks square." Sound like Math? Well, it is. Math is a subject that has a way of stumping us all at one time or another, but isn't it nice to know we have such people as Dr. Peacock, Mr. McCall and Sister Margaret Ruth around to help us out?

- A. "Angela, as you youngsters would say, please get on with the program!"
- B. "No, Mr. Pena—angles aren't measured in dollars; they are measured in degrees."
- C. A Trig student's answer—"Very funny, and very wrong."
- D. "Ha-Ha! Kathleen. I've already finished all of my homework."
- E. "My square turned out wrong, I think I'll call it a circle."
- F. "No, J.V., that was the answer to number 3. The answer to number 4 is $abc = 1 - sy + asz + ybc - xyz$. Got it?"

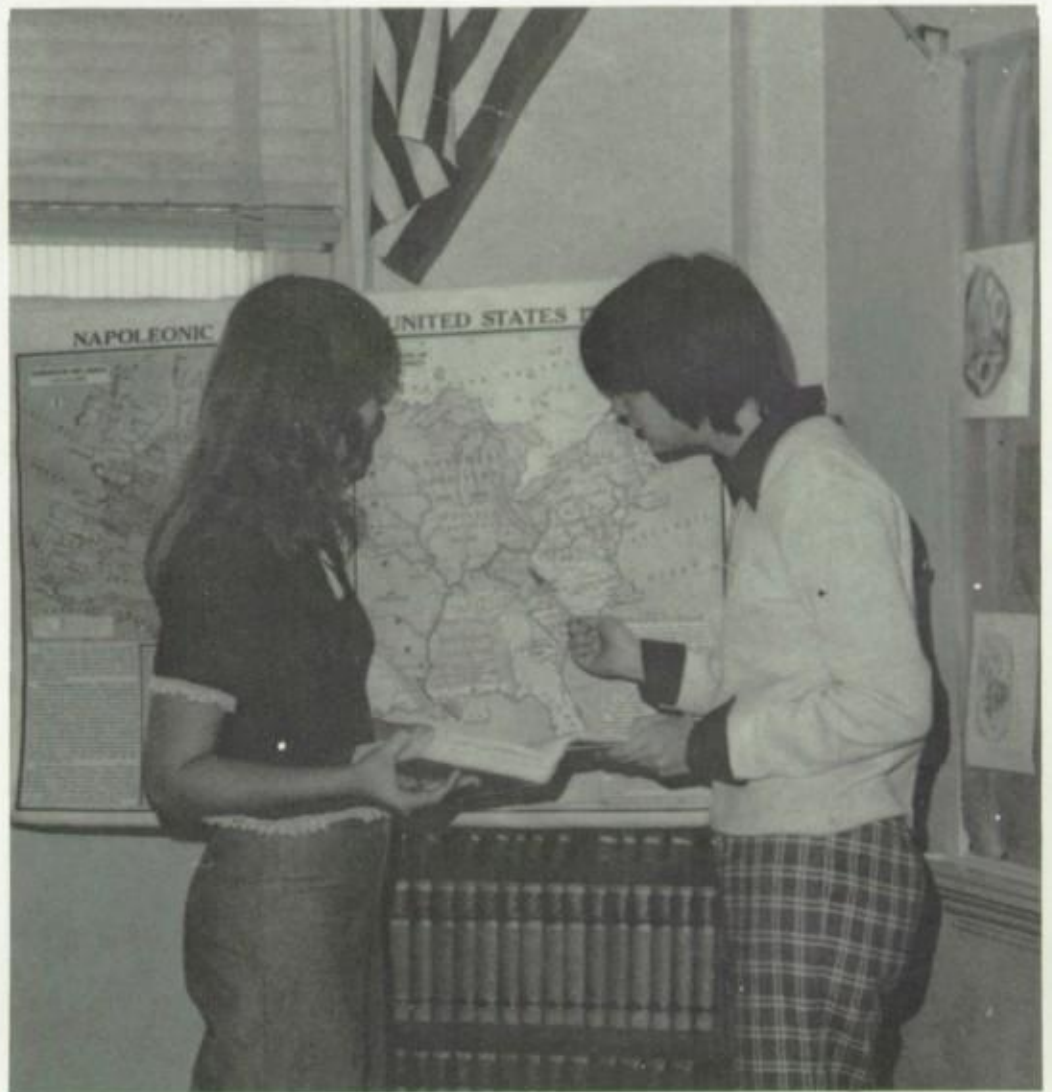

A

Students Enjoy Social Studying

Learning about the customs, cultures, and governments of other parts of the world, past and present, is not a task easily achieved. But at Reicher, the Social Studies staff has succeeded very well. Sr. Mary Helen, Coach Flood, and Coach Pate help students open doors to new worlds, sometimes leaving their own behind.

- A. Brian and friends relax in American History.
- B. Steve catches up on the latest gossip.
- C. Frank can sleep as well sitting up as Donna and Jim can lying down.
- D. Fay and Theresa plan their vacation route.

Skills, Seams, and Sketches

School isn't all books and test. Skills are also learned at Reicher and among those offered are Art and Home Economics. Students are taught the basics and then are allowed to work on their own personal projects. A Reicher first this year was an all-male Home Ec. class. Male liberation at last!

- A. Darwin listens carefully as Sister Evelyn teaches him how to use an ink pen for sketching.
- B. "Who was it that said success is 99% perspiration and 1% inspiration, anyway?"
- C. "I'll add the arsenic if you'll add the nitro."
- D. Lorie examines a new portrait.
- E. "Alfred, confidentially, I think that material is a little too sheer."
- F. Puzzled, Ernie looks in the directions to see why glue won't hold his shirt together.

We are Friends, in any Language.

As if learning to speak English wasn't hard enough these students manage to speak and understand Latin and Spanish as well. Such extra help as tapes, oral recitation, and workbooks make the job a little easier and give students a chance to help each other toward mastering their daily lessons.

- A. Sister Placide watches over her intent Latin students.
- B. Mrs. McConnico literally "conducts" her Spanish class.
- C. Robert and Tim give their oral reports.
- D. Students listen as Sister Pauline lectures.
- E. "I don't know! I just woke up and here I was sitting in this desk ..."
- F. "Oh, oh, here she comes; better put the Spanish tape back in."
- G. "Alright, do it your own way, then!"

Taking Care of Business

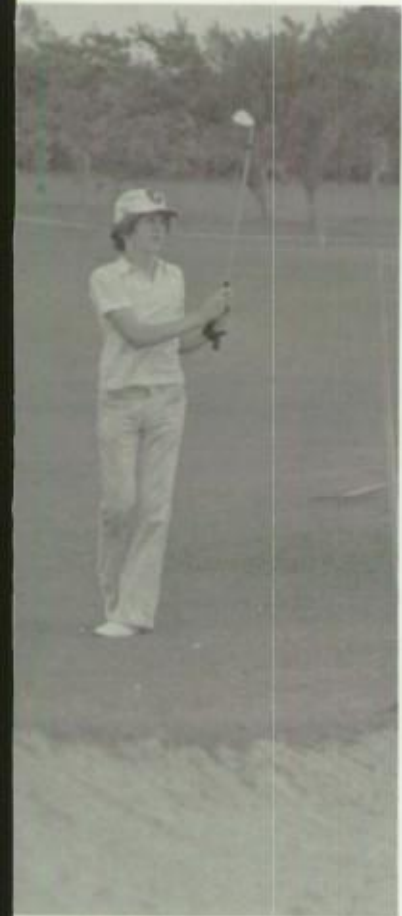

This year students in Bookkeeping, Typing and Consumer Ec. tried to unravel the mysteries of business with the help of Sister Mary Carmel.

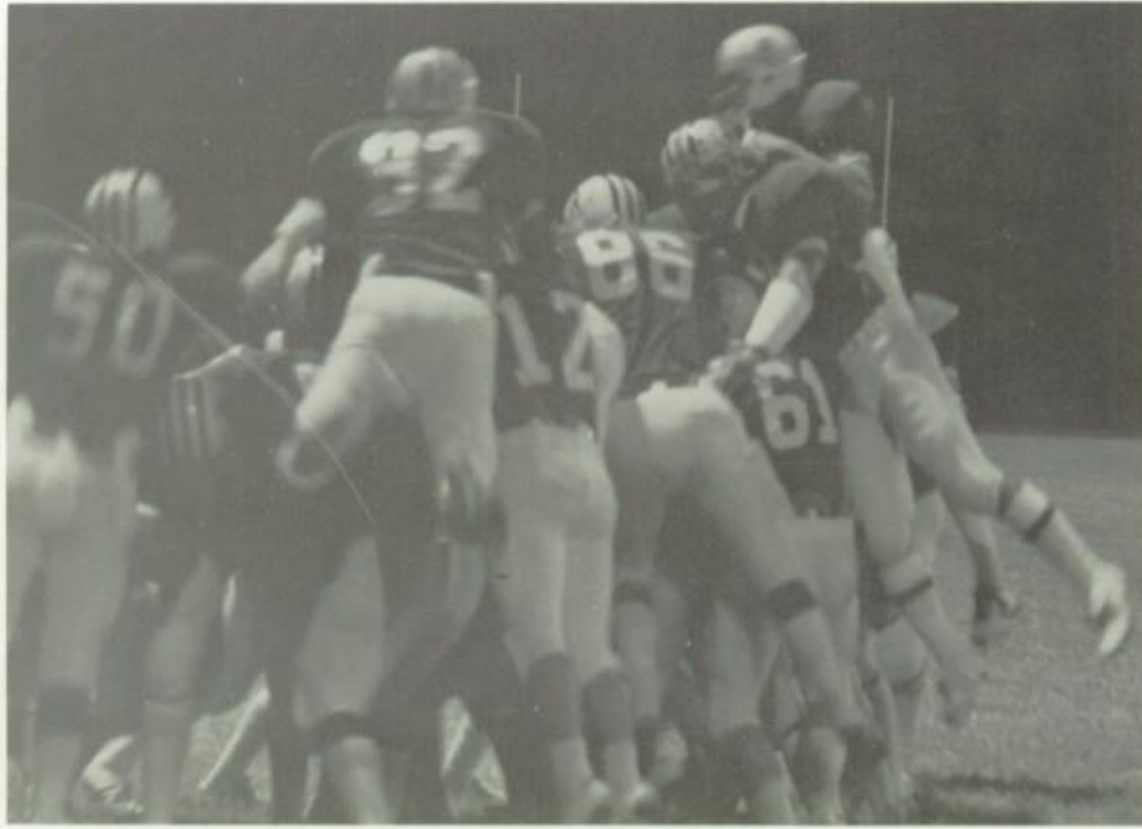

One of the places where Business students and other students as well were guaranteed of a QUIET place for study, was the library. Under the guidance of Miss Cogliati and Mrs. Sodek this room was one place where you could be sure of a good studying atmosphere.

- A. "It's got to be the machine's fault."
- B. The Ups and Downs of Consumer Economics.
- C. "I wonder how long it will take Mrs. Sodek to smell these?"
- D. "Yes, Tony. Now, what does it mean?"
- E. For every debit there has to be a corresponding credit.

Organizations

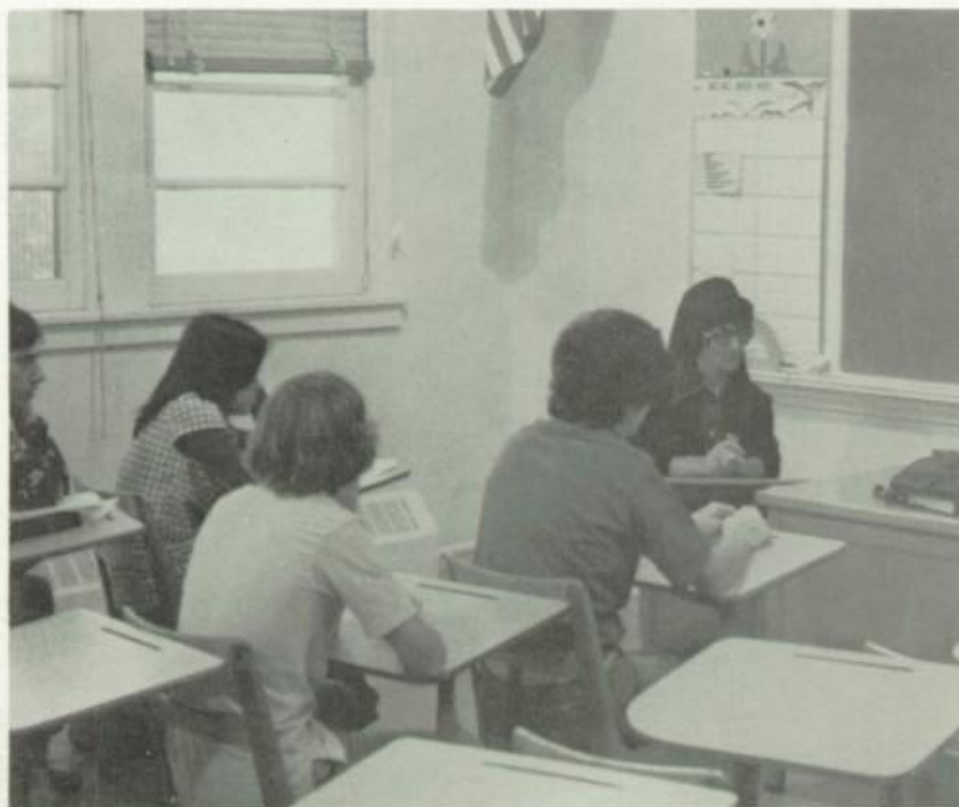

Student Council: People Oriented

The 1974-75 Student Council proved to be a worthwhile organization once more this year. It was under the direction of a very capable Sister Mary Carmel, and had the leadership of the four officers, and "willing-to-work" class representatives. This year the Council sponsored a landscaping project in addition to such social activities as dances, Homecoming activities and Corrigan weekend.

- A. "They're never going to believe this one!"
- B. With the help of the generous contributions made, the landscaping project begins.
- C. "Oh, No! Not the building next!"
- D. The Student Council discusses plans for upcoming events.
- E. The Student Council officers and moderator for the 1974-75 school year were: Sister Mary Carmel, Moderator; Cecelia Jurek, president; Vicki Woodall, vice-president; Mary Lopez, Secretary; Tim Bittenbinder, treasurer.
- F. The Student Council representatives lent a helping hand in the various council-sponsored activities.
- G. The Valentine Dance proved to be a big success with the help of the candidates and starry-eyed couples.

We've Come A Long Way, Baby!

From summer practice to State Finals, a drill-teamer may ask herself if it's really worth twelve hours of practice a week to produce a half-time show. For drill team is a composite: aching muscles and hot tempers, as well as fun with friends. It is sitting in pouring rain and the pride of wearing that uniform. It is studying for a test at 11:30 Wednesday night, but it is also Mrs. Fletcher saying, "Y'all looked good tonight!" So, in the end, for all the time, pain, and work, it really is worth it all to be a Reicher Cougarette.

What Is A Wonderful Wednesday?

A Wonderful Wednesday is something different for everyone. Mini-courses, such as Mechanics for Girls, Astronomy, swimming, tennis and golf are offered. It is also a time to spend with the teachers for a better understanding of whatever it is you need to understand. Everyone enjoys Wednesday, especially the time to do homework and extra projects. We are proud to have this progressive method of teaching at Reicher, and hope it will continue for several years.

Our Festival For Fun and Profit

The Reicher Festival was held Sunday, October 6th, at the Knights of Columbus Hall—with plenty of booths and lots of excitement.

The Seniors had their annual jail which proved to be an excellent "catch-all" for many a "criminal." There was also a new addition to the festival that many people got a "bang" out of—The Car Smash.

The Juniors were up to their necks in their annual Stuffed Animal Booth and sacrificed a large number of balloons in their Dart Throw booth.

The Sophomores tried to double their money and everyone else's in their Double Your Money booth and also provided the Ring Toss Booth and Baseball Throw for the crowd's enjoyment.

The Freshmen added to the fun with their Lollipop Tree and Grab Bag booths.

The day ended with everyone exhausted from the fun, but happy for the profits their efforts would bring to Reicher.

HOMECOMING—There's Magic In That Word

Like a precious jewel, there are many facets involved in Homecoming. There is a special spirit which envelopes all those connected with Reicher at this time. Not only the excitement of the all-important football game, but also other forms of spirit. Each of us felt the feeling of reunion that was in the air at the Homecoming Mass and the friendly class rivalry that went on during the week. A combination of all these events made Homecoming a cherished tradition and a very happy memory.

. . . where children laugh and play. Many, many people combined their efforts to present Babes In Toyland, and resulted in the creation of a delightful fantasy world. Musical, dramatic and artistic ability was displayed by all who were involved in the production. A special thanks should go to Sister Clara Francis, Mrs. Terry Hanks and Mr. Jack Fletcher for their capable direction of this production.

Starry Starry Night

Reicher's Prom this year had the theme of Starry Starry Night and was held in the lovely Brazos Room of the Convention Center. Dance music was provided by "Kharmadille."

The highlight of the evening for many parents, teachers, and students was the crowning of the 1975 Prom Queen, Debbie Kallus. Her court of Senior Lovelies included Beverly Bradley, Cecilia Jurek, and Vickie Gradel.

- A. The Queen's Court was Cecelia Jurek with her escort Rony Gray, Vickie Gradel with her escort, Kent Shumacher, and Beverly Bradley with her escort Dell Hunter. Ann Bouchard and Suzy Shultz presented the Queen and her Court with roses.
- B. "Hey, Debbie. Instead of going to that breakfast after prom, how 'bout an Egg MacMuffin?"
- C. "Hey. Somebody please turn out the lights!"
- D. Prom Queen—Debbie Kallus with her escort Cliff Odenwald.
- E. Well at least they give us a chance to sit down in between dances.
- F. "J.V., I thought you told me this was a masquerade party."
- G. "Hey wait a minute—Of course I can dance, I'm sure I can dance!"
- H. "Hey Baby! Pucker Up!"

Juniors Take All!

On May 16th, all the classes at Reicher were pitted against each other in deadly combat. The occasion? Field Day, a day of intramural competition and an annual event. This year, the Juniors won with a total of nine first places. The Seniors and Sophomores tied for second, while the Freshmen won Janitor.

- A. Ramon is Statue of Liberty for the Spirit of '76.
- B. Mary and Mary merrily make their meandering way down the field.
- C. Sophomores show spirit plus.
- D. "Give 'er a boost, Greg!"
- E. Debbie sighs, "Doesn't anyone love me anymore?"
- F. Don laughs all the way to the finish line.
- G. Patty and Diane have won second and first, respectively, in the sack race three years in a row.

"F" stands for Faith, Fellowship and FACULTY.

Without the faculty of Reicher there would probably be disorder, chaos, and total confusion—as well as no teaching or learning.

The Faculty with Father Angelo Bertini, (1st Semester) Father Ernst (2nd Semester), our seven sisters, and twelve lay teachers provide the students with guidance and knowledge in everything from Glee Club to Chemistry; Earth Science to English.

As you can tell from their smiling faces the teachers seem to like and appreciate Reicher as much as their students.

Reicher is Honored by Several Fine Benefits.

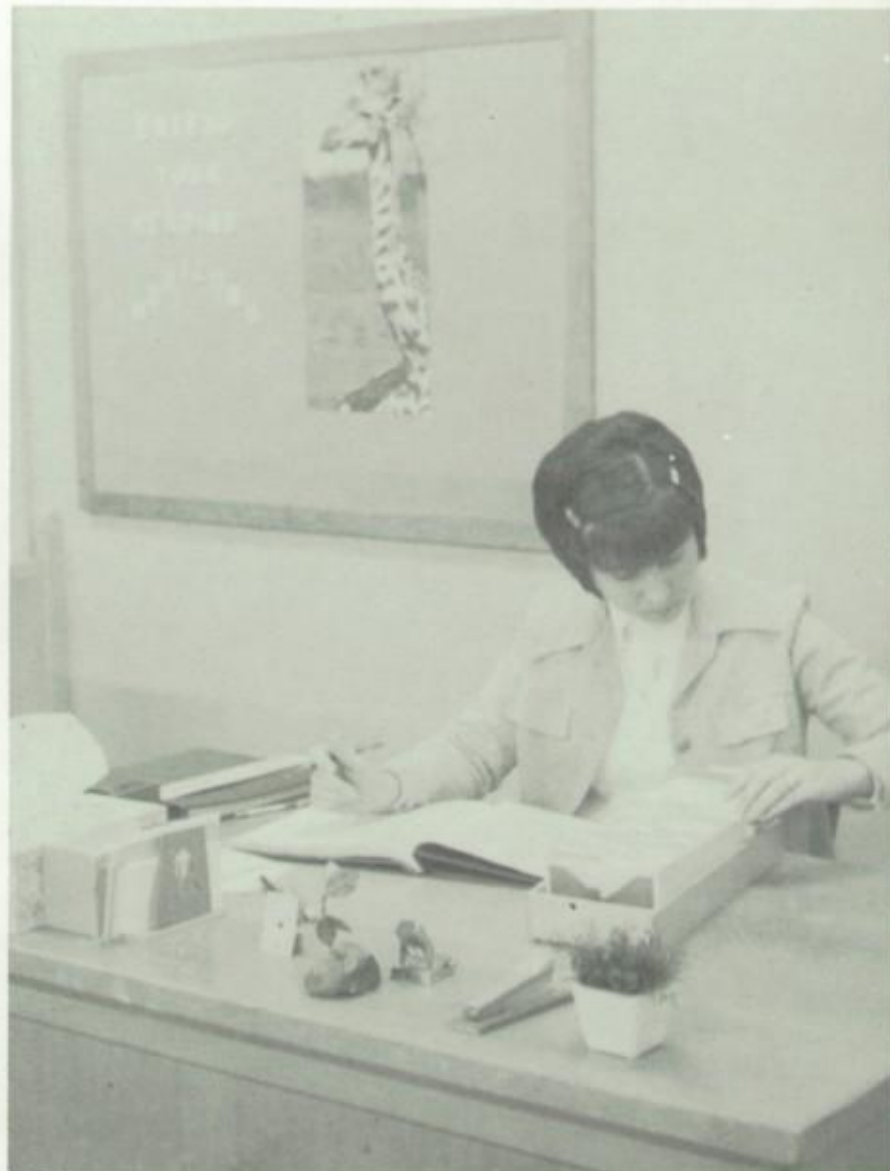

In January, Harry James came to Waco. Over one thousand people came out to listen to his band play. Harry James band consists of five saxophonists, four trumpets, three trombones, one bass, piano and drummer. With his band came his old friend, Corky Corcoran; a saxophone soloist, and Jeanie Thomas came to sing. Reicher would like to say "Thank You" to Harry James for coming. Returns went to the J.J. Kearns Trust Fund for Reicher. Two other money-raising groups for the benefit of Reicher are our Athletic Boosters and Band Boosters, who aided our school also by their dedicated efforts throughout the year.

What Would Reicher Do Without?

Thanks to our School Staff Reicher High is run with plenty of efficiency. Members of the Staff devote much of their time to the school and should be highly recognized. They include: Charles "Charlie" Redrick, Mrs. Cogliati, Mrs. Engelke, Mrs. Stanislav, Mrs. Narovec, Mrs. Sodek, Mr. Collins, Mrs. Trombley, and Mrs. Falsone.

"... Our Last Song Together ..."

Graduation Parties . . . Last Day of School . . . Honor's Night . . .

Commencement . . . Finding a Job? . . . College? . . . The month of May was a rushed one for Seniors. So many things to be done . . . and said, and not enough time for any of them.

With the weather storming outside, Seniors were publicly honored inside St. Louis Church for their special abilities and talents in everything from Speech to Sports on May 23rd during our annual Honor's Night. Co-Valedictorians, Debbie Kallus and Donna Michalka were among the many seniors who were given special recognition during the evening's events. The night's program closed with the 1975 Senior Class singing "Our Last Song Together." A surprise special effect of total darkness in the sanctuary was provided by the storm outside and the failing electricity that resulted.

Father Angelo Bertini gave the address at the Commencement Exercises on Sunday, May 25th. His topic to the Seniors was on "The subject of their inner selves." Diplomas were awarded by Bishop Harris who also gave the closing Benediction.

Editors' Page

Now that you've looked through the yearbook to see how many times your picture appears, to see how many people got away with obscene hand signs, to see if anything's blue (ha! ha!), and to see how many times your name's misspelled, we suggest that you use the following guidelines before passing final judgement:

1. Go back and look through the book page by page. Do not skip over any entire sections. There may be some surprises hidden in them.
2. Take material in this book with all humor and sarcasm that is intended. It is not the purpose of it to sarcastically criticize or insult anyone.
3. Attribute any misspelling of your name to the printing company. Everything was perfect when we sent it to the publisher.
4. Join the 1976 Chi-Rhoan Yearbook staff if you do like this book and correct all the things that you do not like.

Of course, it is customary in any editors' page to give credit where credit is due, and this is no exception. We want to thank the members of the staff, (including Theresa Furgeson who livened up the Thursday meetings), the photographers, (including Linda Gorzelnik who successfully dodged her assignments), Our photo printer's for the piles of scratched pictures, Sherwood Locko who made this page possible, and a very special thanks to Mrs. Collins for the countless hours of uncomplaining efforts toward this yearbook.

Also, it is customary to wish everyone good luck, especially the Seniors of 1975, next year's yearbook Staff and Charlie. So—good luck!
